us that we can overlook ourselves. Bring your suggestions and projects to our next meeting so we can share and learn.

John

See you soon and, as always, call 561-2111 or write Jbolesta@hotmail.com

With warmer weather, we'll get more flying days so please don't be tempted to rush the "old reliable" out to the field without a complete inspection.

Batteries, cables, connections, fuel systems and control surfaces all need a good going over and often a flying buddy can spot things for

See you at the meeting Thursday February 17, 2004 at 7:00 PM!!

Editor Write:

Congratulations Greg.

Recieved an E-Mail from Mike Watts who is currently serving in Iraq with GE.

Mike Writes:

Yes I'm still here but I have moved from bagdhad to the Basara area. The elections went well and i hope that things cool down some. Looking forward of getting back in the air. I miss the newsletters though.

Thanks

Mike Watts
